PIDING ACADEMY, FIFTH AVENUE, CORNER OF Thirty minth street—New York, Nov. 18, 1859. The subscriber would respectfully announce to the public that his Academy is open for the instruction of ladies, gentlemen and children in horseback riding. Eighteen years experience as an instructor, in this city, during which time upwards of twenty thousand punils have honored him with their pairs mage, coalises him to speak with confidence of the many beautiful that the speak with confidence of the many has happily countbuted. The New York Daily Times, of the 17th inst. In an editorial on the subject of well trained horses which are Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, from S to 10 o'clock P M, each vising with the other, to the entireming inspirations of a band of music—not as to who can go the faster, but to develope the beauty of action and graceful manuerverse of their steeds. At 9 o'clock the drill commences, which ought is put to the bush the eaveiry companies of this city for regularity of formation, rapid and various manuerverse, which together with the fact that many of the riders are but little skilled in the art of riding, speaks volumes in favor of the training and sagacity of the horse. Sixteen years ago I introduced the riding of trotting horses and rising to the trot to ladies and gentlemen, which hecame almost universally adopted on our roads. During the past five years I have endeavored to cultivate a taste for the more graceful and elegant him school system, so admirably adapted for park riding. The greatest difficulty I have experienced has been to find riders qualited by practice to ride a well trained horse, few persons, comparaments, fancying themseives born riders, and fewer still that would take sufficient instruction to qualify themselves to ride any other than an easy and gentle cantering borse. If they could see themselves as others see them many wou of learn to ride before venturing on the road or park. The hours devoted exclusively to ladies for instruction and exercise riding are daily from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., and on Wednesday from 4 to 6 P. M.; for gentlemen, daily from 3 to 6 P. M., and on Monday, Wednesday and Priday evenings from 8 to 10 elock. Horses trained for ladies and gentlemen. Horses boarded, with the use of the school. Saddie Horses to let for the road or park.
